FROM NORTH CAROLINA. Retreat of the Rebels from Washington. NEW YORK, April 21. The steamer Augusta Dinsmore, from Port Royal, via Beaufort on the 18th, has arrived.

The rebels have retreated from the vicinity cf Washington, N. C., and abandoned all their bathries which they created on Far river.

The steamer E-cort left Newborp on the 17th for Washington, and was not molected on the разваде пр. Gen. Foster was still at Newbern.

There is nothing later from [Med Heid.

IROM NEW ORLEANS. Important Military Movements in Pro-gress-Admiral Farragut Blockading Red River. NEW YORK, April 21. The steamer Wash-ington, from New Orleans on the 13th, has arrived. Important military movements were in progress against the rebels in Bayou Teche. Gen. Fanks was in the field at the head of Grover's and En ory's divisions and Gen. Weitzel's brigade.

On the 11th inst, Gen. Weitzel's forces crossed Berwick's Bay on pontoons, and advanced to Patterson ville, five miles from the Teche. The enemy retreated upon the approach of our forces, which stradily advanced, and were reinferced on Sunday by Gen. Emory's division. Grover's forces embarked at Brashear City and proceeded into Grand Lake, to a point called ncian Bend, above Franklin. This move if successfully accomplished, will bring theenemy between two fires, and cannot fail of good rerults.

The rebel forces are estimated at 8,000 strong. On Sunday afternoon sharp skirmishing ommenced between Gen. Weitzel's advance and the rebels, the lat er retreating towards Franklin.

It was reported at New Orleans on the 13th that General Weitzel's force was within six miles or Franklin.

It was also rumored that Gen. Grant had appeared with a strong force upon Red river. On the 9th instant Colonel Daniels, with 180 colored troops, went to Pascagoula, Miss., and teer possession of the place, and hoisted the stars and stripes. Subsequently they were attacked by 300 rebel cavalry and a company of infantry. A severe fight followed, resulting in the killing of twenty rebels and the wounding of a large rumber, and the capture of three prisoners. The rebels retreated, leaving behind a set of colors. Colonel Daniels lost two men killed and five slightly wounded. The enemy subsequently brought down large reinforcements from Mobile, when Colonel Daniels returned to Ship Island.

The small gunboat Barritaria was snagged in the Amite river on the 7th. The guerillas surrounded her, when it being found impossible to get her off, the was fired by her officers and abandoned. The Union Association of New Orleans held a meeting recently and adopted resolutions to petition Congress to allow the people to hold a convention to form a State government.

The movement is opposed by some of the most houghtful citizens. A regiment of blacks for heavy artillery has been recruited, and Gen. Banks has authorized the organization of a new white regiment. Two companies were already being formed.

The health of the city is remarkably good. Cem. Sartori has taken command of the sloop of war Portsmouth. The law libraries of Messrs. Benjamin, Bruford and Finny have been confiscated.

Gen. Banks' plan of free negro labor for the plantations meets with daily success. Cheering reports from the planters from all quarters continue to be received, and if no interference is attempted with the present system; within ninety day: Gen. Banks will have demonstrated the practicability of obtaining by voluntary negro inhor as satisfactory a result as was ob-tained under the old system. Admiral Farragut's secretary hadarrived at New Orkans with dispatches. The Admiral was blockading the mouth of Red river. On the trip down from Vicksburg the fleet engaged the latteries at Grand Galf. The Switzerland and Harlford were his but the only thing serious was thefatal wounding of one man on board the latter. It was stated by paroli d scamen from the frigate Mississippi, who had reached New Orleans, that the rebel genboat Webb was destroyed in the Fort Hudson fight: that our fleet did great damage to the batteries there, in one alone of which twenty-five rebels were killed. The enemy were several times driven from their guns, and one of their batteries were spiked.

DEPARTMENT OF THE OHIO.

Union Successes on the Camberland LOUISVILLE, April 20 .- Col. Graham on Saturday attacked the rebels at Celina, Tennessee, killing seven and destroying their camp. On Sunday he crossed the Cumberland, and attacked the rebels there, killing thirty and routing the remainder, and is now in hot pursuit. The Federal loss is one killed. Col. Kelley attacked the rebels yesterday at Creeks oro, on the Cumberland, killing one and capturing sixteen. He is now chasing the remainder.

There were no Federal casualties. Large Fire in Denver City, Kansas. DENVER April 19 .- This morning a fire broke out in the Cherokee House, its progress being so rapid that it was impossible to check it. The fiames spread to the surrounding buildings, and in less than an hour the greater part of four blocks was in ruins. By blowing up and tearing down buildings the fire was checked at about five o'clock. The loss will reach acarly one million five hundred thousand dollars. Flour and provisions are very heavy.

An Alleged Rebel Naval Officer Arrested. NEW YORK, April 21 .- Captain A. S. Parker, alleged to be in the employ of the rebelgovernment, and detailed to bring over one of the new iron-clads building for the Emperor of China, has been arrested here and sent to Fort Lafayette.

Negro Soldiens in Arkansas. CINCINNATI, April 20.-The 1st African regiment at Helena is nearly full. The negroes don't manifest much enthusiasm, and some of them have to be impressed.

From the Southwest. CINCINNATI, April 20.—Skirmishing is re-ported near Corinth, Miss., last Thursday, but we have no particulars. Richmond, La, is reported occupied by the Union troops.

CONFEDERATE STAFF OFFICER CAPTURED .-Dan'l M. Kent, a member of Gen. Ewell's staff. Confederate army, was arrested at the residence of the Ray. C. h. Nelson, (rector of the Protestant Episcopai Church,) near Davidsonville, LADIES URAND FA-HIONABLE MATISEE

An efficial report by telegraph from Gen. Ortega to Gen. Comonfort has just been putdished in Mexico by order of the Secretary of War. It "The enemy has just suffered a terrible de-feat at he hands of the valiant army which I have the honor to command. "During the day, by his bombs and hot shot he succeeded in destroying part of the fortress of Hidalgo, or rather San Javier, and between eight and nine o'clock at night he sent forth from his parallels several of unars of attack and assaulted this fortress, which columns were routed and destroyed in less than one hour by our valiant soldiers. In order to obain this triumph I did not have to call into action a single one of the seven strong brigades

The question, now, is-which is true? The California telegram has this advantage, that it is five days later (April 1st) than the Matamores story. The Matanieros account brings the action down to the 26th only,-at which time, indeed it may have been true, that the advantage up te that time was all on the Mexican side, -but in the attack on the Mexican works during the four days succeeding, it may be that the French got possession of the outside fortifications, and had, as the California telegram stated, cut off communication between The New Orleans Era translates from an
